The Camosun College Chargers began the 2012 PACWEST season with a second-place finish at The Dunes Golf Club in Kamloops over the weekend (Sept. 8-9).

The Chargers shot one under par on Day 1 (287), just one stroke back of first-round leaders, the UBC-Okanagan Heat. Despite a strong start on Day 2, Camosun fell away to a persistent UFV squad who battled the blustery conditions to shoot a low of 283 and capture the tournament with a total 576 strokes. The Chargers finished second with 581 followed by the VIU Mariners who shot 584.

“The guys played hard and were leading at the turn on Day 2,” said Camosun Chargers Head Coach John Randle. “The wind really came up and we struggled a little bit to finish of our rounds.”
