CHARGERS SPORTS ACTION

October 17-20, 2012

Weekend Re-Cap (Oct. 12-13)

CHARGERS VOLLEYBALL

The Chargers volleyball teams began the 2012-13 season with mixed results this past weekend as the women collected a pair of losses against the defending CCAA National Champion VIU Mariners and the men posted a split over two very hard-hitting matches against last year's PACWEST Silver medalist (find scores and team leaders on The Chargers Post). At 0-2, the Chargers women are No. 6 in the PACWEST standings while the men sit in third place with 1 win and 1 loss.

CHARGERS GOLF

The Camosun College golfers departed for Oshawa, ON today to tee-off against the nation's top collegiate teams at the 2012 PING CCAA National Golf Championships hosted by Durham College.

Jarred Callbeck who was named PACWEST Men's Golf Player of the Year will lead the charge as Camosun joins over 100 student-athletes from 23 institutions to compete for the title.

The Championship event includes three rounds of competitive golf, a skills competition and the CCAA Awards Banquet, where the 2012 CCAA All-Canadians and 2012 CCAA Golf Coach of the Year will be announced. This is the first year the CCAA will appoint All-Canadians for golf.
