

2012 - 2013

Athlete of the Week Men's Volleyball

Athlete	Alex Wolf	Institution	Camosun
Hometown	Surrey, BC
Position	Power	Eligibility	3rd Year
Jersey #	9	Height	6' 3"

Match Results

Fri. Feb. 1	Camosun 3	CBC 1	25-16, 23-25, 25-20, 25-11
Sat. Feb. 2	Camosun 3	CBC 0	25-20, 25-17, 25-18

Third-year Camosun student-athlete Alex Wolf had a stellar weekend in the Chargers two wins over the CBC Bearcats. The 6'3" power from Surrey, BC was called on to play two different positions.

On Friday night Wolf played on the right side and contributed 13 points to the victory, with 11 kills, 2 ace serves and a number of key digs. On Saturday he returned to action, this time in the P1 position, and again led the Chargers with 12 kills on a stellar .500 efficiency, 2 blocks and another ace, along with 6 digs.

Wolf's two match total of 23 kills (overall .410 efficiency), 3 aces and 2 blocks represent a career high for the third year, multi dimensional Camosun athlete and are a signal that he is rounding into form as the Chargers head towards the playoffs.

Award # 37

Week Ending Feb. 3, 2013