CHARGERS VOLLEYBALL

The Chargers men's and women's volleyball teams collected three wins on the weekend against the visiting CBC Bearcats (Abbotsford). The women fell in four on Friday (CBC: 25-21, 20-25, 25-19, 25-16) but regrouped the following day to collect their third "w" of the season in straight sets (CAM: 25-22, 25-15, 25-20). Hilary Graham and Morgan Marshall were the top point makers for Camosun on Friday night, contributing 11 offensive points each. Graham scored 7 kills, 3 aces and 1 stuff block while Marshall, who leads the league in blocks (0.92 avg), had 7 kills, 1 ace and 1 block. Second-year leftside Carly Hilliard came in to lead the charge in Saturday's match with 13 kills, 2 blocks and 1 ace. The Chargers women are 3-7 and advance to fifth spot in the PACWEST standings.

The Chargers men swept past the Bearcats this weekend with two solid straight set victories (Fri: 25-16, 25-23, 25-16; Sat: 25-15, 26-24, 25-23). Third-year leftside Jeremy Finn (Westbank) led Camosun on Friday night with 13 kills, 1 ace and 5 digs. Second-year middle Alex Sadowski made 6 kills, 1 ace, 2 blocks and 3 digs. On Saturday, Alex Sadowski took the lead with 12 kills and 2 blocks. Fifth-year leftside Garrett Marcellus had 13 kills and 9 digs.

The Camosun College Chargers are gearing up for an exciting triple header this weekend at the Pacific Institute for Sport Excellence as the home teams face off against Island rivals, the VIU Mariners and the College of the Rockies Avalanche from Cranbrook.

CHARGERS BASKETBALL

The Chargers basketball teams kick-off the Chargers' triple header weekend with their 2012-13 home opener against the VIU Mariners on Friday night. In their previous meeting, the Chargers fell to the Mariners 58-45 (women) and 83-78 (men). This week, both Chargers squads will be counting on a little luck combined with the home court advantage to turn things around. The women look to improve their 1-4 record while the men look for their first win of the season. In addition, the Camosun College Centre for Sport and Exercise Education first-year Sport Management students will be courtside to run activities including raffles, contests, prizes and giveaways in support of Movember.

Fri, Nov. 23	Women	6pm	Camosun (#5) vs. VIU (T#4)
	Men	8pm	Camosun (#8) vs. VIU (#2)
