Weekend Re-Cap for January 18-19, 2013

CHARGERS BASKETBALL

This past weekend, the Chargers basketball teams played host to the Capilano University Blues and the Quest University Kermodes. While the women were defeated in both contests, the men captured two big games which were crucial in keeping their hopes of competing in the playoffs alive.

The Chargers women had two tough battles going up against the conference's 1st and 3rd place teams, falling to Capilano 61-41 on Friday and collecting their second loss of the weekend from Quest on Saturday (59-47). In Friday's game, third-year wing Elyse Matthews (Spectrum) scored 15 points, 7 rebounds, 3 assists and 4 steals in the Chargers' match-up with the PACWEST's top team. The following day against Quest, first-year wing/post Melissa Van Dyk (Claremont) led the Chargers with 15 points, 6 rebounds, 2 assists and 2 steals. At 5-8, the Chargers remain in 6th place in the PACWEST standings.

The Chargers men produced two nail-biting victories on the weekend, defeating Capilano 75-72 on Friday and returning with a take-down of the Kermodes that ended 75-73 on Saturday. The pair of wins advance Camosun to 6th spot with a record of 5-8. Third-year point guard Jordan Elvedahl (Stelly's) had an outstanding performance in both games earning a weekend total of 38 points, 11 rebounds and 12 assists.
