Camosun College is a comprehensive community college located on the traditional territories of the Coast and Strait Salish peoples serving the people of the Greater Victoria Region of British Columbia. Guided by an inspiring strategic plan and administered by a professional community of talented faculty, staff and senior executives, Camosun enrolls 18,000 learners each year, including over 1,100 Indigenous students and 1,100 International students. The College has an operating budget of over $123 million. Across two campuses, Camosun offers more than 160 certificate, diploma, and bachelor's degree programs in arts, sciences, business, health and human services, trades, technologies, sport education, Indigenous studies and adult upgrading. The College is committed to values of relationship with community, inclusiveness, and respect. As a community, we commit to the process of Indigenization of the college – including both programs and services - and to use this learning to improve the learning experiences for the exceptionally diverse range of student needs and backgrounds present within the Camosun community supporting the commitment to lifelong learning and positive student experiences.

Camosun College values teaching excellence in its faculty and is committed to successful learning for its students.

The School of Health and Human Services, Community Support Education Assistant Program (CSEA) seeks applications from qualified candidates to fill a part-time continuing faculty position (including program leading, classroom teaching, and practicum supervision).

The CSEA Program is a dynamic applied Certificate program that provides graduates with the skills, knowledge and values necessary to support people with developmental disabilities in a range of educational and community settings. The curriculum philosophy uses learner-centred principles and is based on a social justice perspective, community living values, and a social model of support. In collaboration with the Department Chair, the Program Leader is the key contact for CSEA, assisting with coordination of program delivery involving faculty, students, and program content.

The successful candidate is expected to:

- Demonstrate a commitment to the scholarship of teaching; and actively participate in a learning centered college environment while promoting excellence in program discipline
- Plan, organize and evaluate teaching approaches and outcomes to maximize student learning
- Demonstrate a commitment to current philosophies and practices
- Participate in professional activities that contribute to the educational goals of the department, school and the College
- Contribute to program curriculum development processes
- Adhere to and demonstrate compliance with teaching related policies, procedures and protocols
- Serve on departmental, school and/or organizational committees
- Demonstrate excellence and respect in verbal and written communications
- Contribute to and cultivate collegial and collaborative work relationships
- Be familiar with and thrive in a BC post-secondary education setting
- Possess the skills and willingness to engage in peer level leadership activities and assignments

QUALIFICATIONS

- Master's Degree in Child and Youth Care, Education, Social Work, Human Development, or related discipline.
- Minimum of five years' experience working with people with developmental disabilities
- Minimum of one year experience teaching adults in a post-secondary setting

Salary is commensurate with education and experience as per the collective agreement.
