Camosun College is a comprehensive community college located on the traditional territories of the Coast and Strait Salish peoples serving the people of the Greater Victoria Region of British Columbia. Guided by an inspiring strategic plan and administered by a professional community of talented faculty, staff and senior executives, Camosun enrolls 18,000 learners each year, including over 1,100 Indigenous students and 1,100 International students. The College has an operating budget of over $123 million. Across two campuses, Camosun offers more than 160 certificate, diploma, and bachelor's degree programs in arts, sciences, business, health and human services, trades, technologies, sport education, Indigenous studies and adult upgrading. The College is committed to values of relationship with community, inclusiveness, and respect. As a community, we commit to the process of Indigenization of the college – including both programs and services - and to use this learning to improve the learning experiences for the exceptionally diverse range of student needs and backgrounds present within the Camosun community supporting the commitment to lifelong learning and positive student experiences.

The School of Access seeks applications from qualified candidates to join a dynamic team of instructors teaching Adult Basic Education in the Academic and Career Foundations (ACF) Department. Our instructors are committed to helping students prepare for and succeed in their educational and career pursuits. The ACF Department's English courses are provincially articulated at the ABE Fundamental and Intermediate levels delivered in a self-paced, continuous entry environment. This English assignment includes teaching reading comprehension and writing skills and facilitating student success in learning. The successful candidate is expected to have instructional experience teaching from a literacy level to instructing essay writing and Provincial Level English.

The following is required for successful employment at Camosun College:

- A demonstrated commitment to the scholarship of teaching and learning

- Active participation in our learner centered environment while promoting excellence in program discipline
- Ability to plan, organize and evaluate teaching approaches and outcomes to maximize student learning
- Commitment to current and trending philosophies, practices and advancements
- Adherence to, and compliance with, teaching related policies, procedures and protocols
- A willingness to serve on departmental, school and/or organizational committees
- Engaged participation in professional development activities that contribute to the educational goals of the Department, School and the College
- Contributions to the curriculum development process
- A consistent demonstration of excellence and respect in verbal and written communications
- An ability to contribute to and cultivate collegial and collaborative relationships
- Comfort and familiarity with educational technology and MS Office programs
- Capable of thriving in a BC post-secondary education setting that's welcoming and relevant to Indigenous learners and helping to prepare non-Indigenous students, graduates and employees to better understand, live alongside of, and work with Indigenous peoples
- A commitment to sustainable practices within our environment and society
